Bain et Art de Vivre

A Passion for the French Bathroom

Classic, Handmade, Quality

Mocé Maison exists to help discover and savour a way of life that makes every day a little bit sweeter and a little more bearable, even when life deals us some tough blows. The French call it art de vivre or the art of living. At Mocé Maison our vision is to provide glamorous, and well designed bathrooms without the designer price tag, our stance on quality is simple if we wouldn't have it in our own home then we don't sell it!

Mastering sophistication and simplicity.

“Art de Vivre” is a French phrase that translates to the art of living and emphasizes the appreciation of everyday experiences. For example, drinking a coffee is not just to wake you up and should not be rushed through. It’s much more of an immersed experience to sit down and lay back at a Parisian cafe and getting your mind off for a short while.

A quality of life, a philosophy, desires and pleasures ... which around the world have no comparable. The French cultivate a passion for the art of living.

Along Mocé Maison is the pursuit of crafting a home that lets people enjoy the French way of living – do nothing yet with panache.

While French love to say: Vive la France! We would say: Vive la Différence!
